[24] They have seen Your procession, O God— the march of my God and King into the sanctuary.
[25] The singers lead the way, the musicians follow after, among the maidens playing tambourines.
[26] Bless God in the great congregation; bless the LORD from the fountain of Israel.
[27] There is Benjamin, the youngest, ruling them, the princes of Judah in their company, the princes of Zebulun and of Naphtali.
[28] Summon Your power, O God; show Your strength, O God, which You have exerted on our behalf.
[29] Because of Your temple at Jerusalem kings will bring You gifts.
[30] Rebuke the beast in the reeds, the herd of bulls among the calves of the nations, until it submits, bringing bars of silver. Scatter the nations who delight in war.
[31] Envoys will arrive from Egypt; Cush will stretch out her hands to God.
[32] Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth; sing praises to the Lord— Selah
[33] to Him who rides upon the highest heavens of old; behold, His mighty voice resounds.
[34] Ascribe the power to God, whose majesty is over Israel, whose strength is in the skies.
[35] O God, You are awesome in Your sanctuary; the God of Israel Himself gives strength and power to His people. Blessed be God!

69 For the choirmaster. To the tune of "Lilies." Of David. Save me, O God, for the waters are up to my neck.
[2] I have sunk into the miry depths, where there is no footing; I have drifted into deep waters, where the flood engulfs me.
[3] I am weary from my crying; my throat is parched. My eyes fail, looking for my God.
[4] Those who hate me without cause outnumber the hairs of my head; many are those who would destroy me— my enemies for no reason. Though I did not steal, I must repay.
[5] You know my folly, O God, and my guilt is not hidden from You.
[6] May those who hope in You not be ashamed through me, O Lord GOD of Hosts; may those who seek You not be dishonored through me, O God of Israel.
[7] For I have endured scorn for Your sake, and shame has covered my face.
[8] I have become a stranger to my brothers and a foreigner to my mother's sons,
[9] because zeal for Your house has consumed me, and the insults of those who insult You have fallen on me.
[10] I wept and fasted, but it brought me reproach.
[11] I made sackcloth my clothing, and I was sport to them.
[12] Those who sit at the gate mock me, and I am the song of drunkards.
[13] But my prayer to You, O LORD, is for a time of favor. In Your abundant loving devotion, O God, answer me with Your sure salvation.
[14] Rescue me from the mire and do not let me sink; deliver me from my foes and out of the deep waters.
[15] Do not let the floods engulf me or the depths swallow me up; let not the Pit close its mouth over me.
[16] Answer me, O LORD, for Your loving devotion is good; turn to me in keeping with Your great compassion.
[17] Hide not Your face from Your servant, for I am in distress. Answer me quickly!
[18] Draw near to my soul and redeem me; ransom me because of my foes.
[19] You know my reproach, my shame and disgrace. All my adversaries are before You.
[20] Insults have broken my heart, and I am in despair. I looked for sympathy, but there was none, for comforters, but I found no one.
[21] They poisoned my food with gall and gave me vinegar to quench my thirst.
[22] May their table become a snare; may it be a retribution and a trap.
[23] May their eyes be darkened so they cannot see, and their backs be bent forever.
[24] Pour out Your wrath upon them, and let Your burning anger overtake them.
[25] May their place be deserted; let there be no one to dwell in their tents.
[26] For they persecute the one You struck and recount the pain of those You wounded.
[27] Add iniquity to their iniquity; let them not share in Your righteousness.
[28] May they be blotted out of the Book of Life and not listed with the righteous.
[29] But I am in pain and distress; let Your salvation protect me, O God.
[30] I will praise God's name in song and exalt Him with thanksgiving.
[31] And this will please the LORD more than an ox, more than a bull with horns and hooves.
[32] The humble will see and rejoice. You who seek God, let your hearts be revived!
[33] For the LORD listens to the needy and does not despise His captive people.
[34] Let heaven and earth praise Him, the seas and everything that moves in them.
[35] For God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah, that they may dwell there and possess it.
[36] The descendants of His servants will inherit it, and those who love His name will settle in it.

70 For the choirmaster. Of David. To bring remembrance. Make haste, O God, to deliver me! Hurry, O LORD, to help me!
[2] May those who seek my life be ashamed and confounded; may those who wish me harm be repelled and humiliated.
[3] May those who say, "Aha, aha!" retreat because of their shame.
[4] May all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; may those who love Your salvation always say, "Let God be magnified!"
[5] But I am poor and needy; hurry to me, O God. You are my help and my deliverer; O LORD, do not delay.

71 In You, O LORD, I have taken refuge; let me never be put to shame.
[2] In Your justice, rescue and deliver me; incline Your ear and save me.
[3] Be my rock of refuge, where I can always go. Give the command to save me, for You are my rock and my fortress.
[4] Deliver me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the grasp of the unjust and ruthless.
[5] For You are my hope, O Lord GOD, my confidence from my youth.
[6] I have leaned on You since birth; You pulled me from my mother's womb. My praise is always for You.
[7] I have become a portent to many, but You are my strong refuge.
[8] My mouth is filled with Your praise and with Your splendor all day long.
[9] Do not discard me in my old age; do not forsake me when my strength fails.
[10] For my enemies speak against me, and those who lie in wait for my life conspire,
[11] saying, "God has forsaken him; pursue him and seize him, for there is no one to rescue him."
[12] Be not far from me, O God. Hurry, O my God, to help me.
[13] May the accusers of my soul be ashamed and consumed; may those who seek my harm be covered with scorn and disgrace.
[14] But I will always hope and will praise You more and more.
[15] My mouth will declare Your righteousness and Your salvation all day long, though I cannot know their full measure.
[16] I will enter in the strength of the Lord GOD; I will proclaim Your righteousness —Yours alone.
[17] O God, You have taught me from my youth, and to this day I proclaim Your marvelous deeds.
[18] Even when I am old and gray, do not forsake me, O God, until I proclaim Your power to the next generation, Your might to all who are to come.
[19] Your righteousness reaches to the heavens, O God, You who have done great things. Who, O God, is like You?
[20] Though You have shown me many troubles and misfortunes, You will revive me once again. Even from the depths of the earth You will bring me back up.
[21] You will increase my honor and comfort me once again.
[22] So I will praise You with the harp for Your faithfulness, O my God; I will sing praise to You with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel.
[23] When I sing praise to You my lips will shout for joy, along with my soul, which You have redeemed.
[24] My tongue will indeed proclaim Your righteousness all day long, for those who seek my harm are disgraced and confounded.

72 Of Solomon. Endow the king with Your justice, O God, and the son of the king with Your righteousness.
[2] May he judge Your people with righteousness and Your afflicted with justice.
[3] May the mountains bring peace to the people, and the hills bring righteousness.
[4] May he vindicate the afflicted among the people; may he save the children of the needy and crush the oppressor.
[5] May they fear him as long as the sun shines, as long as the moon remains, through all generations.
[6] May he be like rain that falls on freshly cut grass, like spring showers that water the earth.
[7] May the righteous flourish in his days and prosperity abound, until the moon is no more.
[8] May he rule from sea to sea, and from the Euphrates to the ends of the earth.
[9] May the nomads bow before him, and his enemies lick the dust.
[10] May the kings of Tarshish and distant shores bring tribute; may the kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.
[11] May all kings bow down to him and all nations serve him.
[12] For he will deliver the needy who cry out and the afflicted who have no helper.
[13] He will take pity on the poor and needy and save the lives of the oppressed.
[14] He will redeem them from oppression and violence, for their blood is precious in his sight.
[15] Long may he live! May gold from Sheba be given him. May people ever pray for him; may they bless him all day long.
[16] May there be an abundance of grain in the land; may it sway atop the hills. May its fruit trees flourish like the forests of Lebanon, and its people like the grass of the field.
[17] May his name endure forever; may his name continue as long as the sun shines. In him may all nations be blessed; may they call him blessed.
[18] Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who alone does marvelous deeds.

[19] And blessed be His glorious name forever; may all the earth be filled with His glory. Amen and amen.
[20] Thus conclude the prayers of David son of Jesse.

73 A Psalm of Asaph. Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.
[2] But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled; my steps had nearly slipped.
[3] For I envied the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
[4] They have no struggle in their death; their bodies are well-fed.
[5] They are free of the burdens others carry; they are not afflicted like other men.
[6] Therefore pride is their necklace; a garment of violence covers them.
[7] From their prosperity proceeds iniquity; the imaginations of their hearts run wild.
[8] They mock and speak with malice; with arrogance they threaten oppression.
[9] They set their mouths against the heavens, and their tongues strut across the earth.
[10] So their people return to this place and drink up waters in abundance.
[11] The wicked say, "How can God know? Does the Most High have knowledge?"
[12] Behold, these are the wicked— always carefree as they increase their wealth.
[13] Surely in vain I have kept my heart pure; in innocence I have washed my hands.
[14] For I am afflicted all day long and punished every morning.
[15] If I had said, "I will speak this way," then I would have betrayed Your children.
[16] When I tried to understand all this, it was troublesome in my sight
[17] until I entered God's sanctuary; then I discerned their end.
[18] Surely You set them on slick ground; You cast them down into ruin.
[19] How suddenly they are laid waste, completely swept away by terrors!
[20] Like one waking from a dream, so You, O Lord, awaken and despise their form.
[21] When my heart was grieved and I was pierced within,
[22] I was senseless and ignorant; I was a brute beast before You.
[23] Yet I am always with You; You hold my right hand.
[24] You guide me with Your counsel, and later receive me in glory.
[25] Whom have I in heaven but You? And on earth I desire no one besides You.
[26] My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
[27] Those far from You will surely perish; You destroy all who are unfaithful to You.
[28] But as for me, it is good to draw near to God. I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, that I may proclaim all Your works.

74 A Maskil of Asaph. Why have You rejected us forever, O God? Why does Your anger smolder against the sheep of Your pasture?
[2] Remember Your congregation, which You purchased long ago and redeemed as the tribe of Your inheritance— Mount Zion where You dwell.
[3] Turn Your steps to the everlasting ruins, to everything in the sanctuary the enemy has destroyed.
[4] Your foes have roared within Your meeting place; they have unfurled their banners as signs,
[5] like men wielding axes in a thicket of trees
[6] and smashing all the carvings with hatchets and picks.
[7] They have burned Your sanctuary to the ground; they have defiled the dwelling place of Your Name.
[8] They said in their hearts, "We will crush them completely." They burned down every place where God met us in the land.
[9] There are no signs for us to see. There is no longer any prophet. And none of us knows how long this will last.
[10] How long, O God, will the enemy taunt You? Will the foe revile Your name forever?
[11] Why do You withdraw Your strong right hand? Stretch it out to destroy them!
[12] Yet God is my King from ancient times, working salvation on the earth.
[13] You divided the sea by Your strength; You smashed the heads of the dragons of the sea;
[14] You crushed the heads of Leviathan; You fed him to the creatures of the desert.
[15] You broke open the fountain and the flood; You dried up the ever-flowing rivers.
[16] The day is Yours, and also the night; You established the moon and the sun.
[17] You set all the boundaries of the earth; You made the summer and winter.
[18] Remember how the enemy has mocked You, O LORD, how a foolish people has spurned Your name.
[19] Do not deliver the soul of Your dove to beasts; do not forget the lives of Your afflicted forever.
[20] Consider Your covenant, for haunts of violence fill the dark places of the land.
[21] Do not let the oppressed retreat in shame; may the poor and needy praise Your name.
[22] Rise up, O God; defend Your cause! Remember how the fool mocks You all day long.
[23] Do not disregard the clamor of Your adversaries, the uproar of Your enemies that ascends continually.

75 For the choirmaster: To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A Psalm of Asaph. A song. We give thanks to You, O God; we give thanks, for Your Name is near. The people declare Your wondrous works.
[2] "When I choose a time, I will judge fairly."
[3] When the earth and all its dwellers quake, it is I who bear up its pillars. Selah
[4] I say to the proud, 'Do not boast,' and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up your horn.'
[5] "Do not lift up your horn against heaven or speak with an outstretched neck.'"
[6] For exaltation comes neither from east nor west, nor out of the desert,
[7] but it is God who judges; He brings down one and exalts another.
[8] For a cup is in the hand of the LORD, full of foaming wine mixed with spices. He pours from His cup, and all the wicked of the earth drink it down to the dregs.
[9] But I will proclaim Him forever; I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.
[10] "All the horns of the wicked I will cut off, but the horns of the righteous will be exalted."

76 For the choirmaster. With stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A song. God is known in Judah; His name is great in Israel.
[2] His tent is in Salem, His dwelling place in Zion.
[3] There He shattered the flaming arrows, the shield and sword and weapons of war. Selah
[4] You are resplendent with light, more majestic than mountains filled with game.
[5] The valiant lie plundered; they sleep their last sleep. No men of might could lift a hand.
[6] At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both horse and rider lie stunned.
[7] You alone are to be feared. When You are angry, who can stand before You?
[8] From heaven You pronounced judgment, and the earth feared and was still
[9] when God rose up to judge, to save all the lowly of the earth. Selah
[10] Even the wrath of man shall praise You; with the survivors of wrath You will clothe Yourself.
[11] Make and fulfill your vows to the LORD your God; let all the neighboring lands bring tribute to Him who is to be feared.
[12] He breaks the spirits of princes; He is feared by the kings of the earth.

77 For the choirmaster. According to Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph. I cried out to God; I cried aloud to God to hear me.
[2] In the day of trouble I sought the Lord; through the night my outstretched hands did not grow weary; my soul refused to be comforted.
[3] I remembered You, O God, and I groaned; I mused and my spirit grew faint. Selah
[4] You have kept my eyes from closing; I am too troubled to speak.
[5] I considered the days of old, the years long in the past.
[6] At night I remembered my song; in my heart I mused, and my spirit pondered:
[7] "Will the Lord spurn us forever and never show His favor again?"
[8] Is His loving devotion gone forever? Has His promise failed for all time?
[9] "Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has His anger shut off His compassion?" Selah
[10] So I said, "I am grieved that the right hand of the Most High has changed."
[11] I will remember the works of the LORD; yes, I will remember Your wonders of old.
[12] I will reflect on all You have done and ponder Your mighty deeds.
[13] Your way, O God, is holy. What god is so great as our God?
[14] You are the God who works wonders; You display Your strength among the peoples.
[15] With power You redeemed Your people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah
[16] The waters saw You, O God; the waters saw You and swirled; even the depths were shaken.
[17] The clouds poured down water; the skies resounded with thunder; Your arrows flashed back and forth.
[18] Your thunder resounded in the whirlwind; the lightning lit up the world; the earth trembled and quaked.
[19] Your path led through the sea, Your way through the mighty waters, but Your footprints were not to be found.
[20] You led Your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

78 A Maskil of Asaph. Give ear, O my people, to my instruction; listen to the words of my mouth.
[2] I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden from the beginning,
[3] that we have heard and known and our fathers have relayed to us.
[4] We will not hide them from their children, but will declare to the next generation the praises of the LORD and His might, and the wonders He has performed.
[5] For He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel, which He commanded our fathers to teach to their children,
[6] that the coming generation would know them— even children yet to be born— to arise and tell their own children
[7] that they should put their confidence in God, not forgetting His works, but keeping His commandments.

[8] Then they will not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, whose heart was not loyal, whose spirit was not faithful to God.
[9] The archers of Ephraim turned back on the day of battle.
[10] They failed to keep God's covenant and refused to live by His law.
[11] They forgot what He had done, the wonders He had shown them.
[12] He worked wonders before their fathers in the land of Egypt, in the region of Zoan.
[13] He split the sea and brought them through; He set the waters upright like a wall.
[14] He led them with a cloud by day and with a light of fire all night.
[15] He split the rocks in the wilderness and gave them drink as abundant as the seas.
[16] He brought streams from the stone and made water flow down like rivers.
[17] But they continued to sin against Him, rebelling in the desert against the Most High.
[18] They willfully tested God by demanding the food they craved.
[19] They spoke against God, saying, "Can God really prepare a table in the wilderness?"
[20] "When He struck the rock, water gushed out and torrents raged. But can He also give bread or supply His people with meat?"
[21] Therefore the LORD heard and was filled with wrath; so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and His anger flared against Israel,
[22] because they did not believe God or rely on His salvation.
[23] Yet He commanded the clouds above and opened the doors of the heavens.
[24] He rained down manna for them to eat; He gave them grain from heaven.
[25] Man ate the bread of angels; He sent them food in abundance.
[26] He stirred the east wind from the heavens and drove the south wind by His might.
[27] He rained meat on them like dust, and winged birds like the sand of the sea.
[28] He felled them in the midst of their camp, all around their dwellings.
[29] So they ate and were well filled, for He gave them what they craved.
[30] Yet before they had filled their desire, with the food still in their mouths,
[31] God's anger flared against them, and He put to death their strongest and subdued the young men of Israel.
[32] In spite of all this, they kept on sinning; despite His wonderful works, they did not believe.
[33] So He ended their days in futility, and their years in sudden terror.
[34] When He slew them, they would seek Him; they repented and searched for God.
[35] And they remembered that God was their Rock, that God Most High was their Redeemer.
[36] But they deceived Him with their mouths, and lied to Him with their tongues.
[37] Their hearts were disloyal to Him, and they were unfaithful to His covenant.
[38] And yet He was compassionate; He forgave their iniquity and did not destroy them. He often restrained His anger and did not unleash His full wrath.
[39] He remembered that they were but flesh, a passing breeze that does not return.
[40] How often they disobeyed Him in the wilderness and grieved Him in the desert!
[41] Again and again they tested God and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
[42] They did not remember His power— the day He redeemed them from the adversary,
[43] when He performed His signs in Egypt and His wonders in the fields of Zoan.
[44] He turned their rivers to blood, and from their streams they could not drink.
[45] He sent swarms of flies that devoured them, and frogs that devastated them.
[46] He gave their crops to the grasshopper, the fruit of their labor to the locust.
[47] He killed their vines with hailstones and their sycamore-figs with sleet.
[48] He abandoned their cattle to the hail and their livestock to bolts of lightning.
[49] He unleashed His fury against them, wrath, indignation, and calamity— a band of destroying angels.
[50] He cleared a path for His anger; He did not spare them from death but delivered their lives to the plague.
[51] He struck all the firstborn of Egypt, the virility in the tents of Ham.
[52] He led out His people like sheep and guided them like a flock in the wilderness.
[53] He led them safely, so they did not fear, but the sea engulfed their enemies.
[54] He brought them to His holy land, to the mountain His right hand had acquired.
[55] He drove out nations before them and apportioned their inheritance; He settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.
[56] But they tested and disobeyed God Most High, for they did not keep His decrees.
[57] They turned back and were faithless like their fathers, twisted like a faulty bow.
[58] They enraged Him with their high places and provoked His jealousy with their idols.
[59] On hearing it, God was furious and rejected Israel completely.
[60] He abandoned the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent He had pitched among men.
[61] He delivered His strength to captivity, and His splendor to the hand of the adversary.
[62] He surrendered His people to the sword because He was enraged by His heritage.
[63] Fire consumed His young men, and their maidens were left without wedding songs.
[64] His priests fell by the sword, but their widows could not lament.
[65] Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, like a mighty warrior overcome by wine.
[66] He beat back His foes; He put them to everlasting shame.
[67] He rejected the tent of Joseph and refused the tribe of Ephraim.
[68] But He chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which He loved.
[69] He built His sanctuary like the heights, like the earth He has established forever.
[70] He chose David His servant and took him from the sheepfolds;
[71] from tending the ewes He brought him to be shepherd of His people Jacob, of Israel His inheritance.
[72] So David shepherded them with integrity of heart and guided them with skillful hands.

79 A Psalm of Asaph. The nations, O God, have invaded Your inheritance; they have defiled Your holy temple and reduced Jerusalem to rubble.
[2] They have given the corpses of Your servants as food to the birds of the air, the flesh of Your saints to the beasts of the earth.
[3] They have poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there is no one to bury the dead.
[4] We have become a reproach to our neighbors, a scorn and derision to those around us.
[5] How long, O LORD? Will You be angry forever? Will Your jealousy burn like fire?
[6] Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge You, on the kingdoms that refuse to call on Your name,
[7] for they have devoured Jacob and devastated his homeland.
[8] Do not hold past sins against us; let Your compassion come quickly, for we are brought low.
[9] Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Your name; deliver us and atone for our sins, for the sake of Your name.
[10] Why should the nations ask, "Where is their God?" Before our eyes, make known among the nations Your vengeance for the bloodshed of Your servants.
[11] May the groans of the captives reach You; by the strength of Your arm preserve those condemned to death.
[12] Pay back into the laps of our neighbors sevenfold the reproach they hurled at You, O Lord.
[13] Then we Your people, the sheep of Your pasture, will thank You forever; from generation to generation we will declare Your praise.

80 For the choirmaster. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm of Asaph. Hear us, O Shepherd of Israel, who leads Joseph like a flock; You who sit enthroned between the cherubim, shine forth
[2] before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh. Rally Your mighty power and come to save us.
[3] Restore us, O God, and cause Your face to shine upon us, that we may be saved.
[4] O LORD God of Hosts, how long will Your anger smolder against the prayers of Your people?
[5] You fed them with the bread of tears and made them drink the full measure of their tears.
[6] You make us contend with our neighbors; our enemies mock us.
[7] Restore us, O God of Hosts, and cause Your face to shine upon us, that we may be saved.
[8] You uprooted a vine from Egypt; You drove out the nations and transplanted it.
[9] You cleared the ground for it, and it took root and filled the land.
[10] The mountains were covered by its shade, and the mighty cedars with its branches.
[11] It sent out its branches to the Sea, and its shoots toward the River.
[12] Why have You broken down its walls, so that all who pass by pick its fruit?
[13] The boar from the forest ravages it, and the creatures of the field feed upon it.
[14] Return, O God of Hosts, we pray! Look down from heaven and see! Attend to this vine—
[15] the root Your right hand has planted, the son You have raised up for Yourself.
[16] Your vine has been cut down and burned; they perish at the rebuke of Your countenance.
[17] Let Your hand be upon the man at Your right hand, on the son of man You have raised up for Yourself.
[18] Then we will not turn away from You; revive us, and we will call on Your name.
[19] Restore us, O LORD God of Hosts; cause Your face to shine upon us, that we may be saved.

81 For the choirmaster. According to Gittith. Of Asaph. Sing for joy to God our strength; make a joyful noise to the God of Jacob.
[2] Lift up a song, strike the tambourine, play the sweet-sounding harp and lyre.
[3] Sound the ram's horn at the New Moon, and at the full moon on the day of our Feast.
[4] For this is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
[5] He ordained it as a testimony for Joseph when he went out over the land of Egypt, where I heard an unfamiliar language:
[6] "I relieved his shoulder of the burden; his hands were freed from the basket."
[7] You called out in distress, and I rescued you; I answered you from the cloud of thunder; I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah

[8] Hear, O My people, and I will warn you: O Israel, if only you would listen to Me!
[9] There must be no strange god among you, nor shall you bow to a foreign god.
[10] I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of Egypt. Open wide your mouth, and I will fill it.
[11] But My people would not listen to Me, and Israel would not obey Me.
[12] So I gave them up to their stubborn hearts to follow their own devices.
[13] If only My people would listen to Me, if Israel would follow My ways,
[14] how soon I would subdue their enemies and turn My hand against their foes!
[15] Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever.
[16] "But I would feed you the finest wheat; with honey from the rock I would satisfy you."

82 A Psalm of Asaph. God presides in the divine assembly; He renders judgment among the gods:
[2] "How long will you judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? Selah"
[3] Defend the cause of the weak and fatherless; uphold the rights of the afflicted and oppressed.
[4] Rescue the weak and needy; save them from the hand of the wicked.
[5] They do not know or understand; they wander in the darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken.
[6] I have said, 'You are gods; you are all sons of the Most High.'
[7] "But like mortals you will die, and like rulers you will fall."
[8] Arise, O God, judge the earth, for all the nations are Your inheritance.

83 A song. A Psalm of Asaph. O God, be not silent; be not speechless; be not still, O God.
[2] See how Your enemies rage, how Your foes have reared their heads.
[3] With cunning they scheme against Your people and conspire against those You cherish,
[4] saying, "Come, let us erase them as a nation; may the name of Israel be remembered no more."
[5] For with one mind they plot together, they form an alliance against You—
[6] the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, of Moab and the Hagrites,
[7] of Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek, of Philistia with the people of Tyre.
[8] Even Assyria has joined them, lending strength to the sons of Lot. Selah
[9] Do to them as You did to Midian, as to Sisera and Jabin at the River Kishon,
[10] who perished at Endor and became like dung on the ground.
[11] Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, and all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,
[12] who said, "Let us possess for ourselves the pastures of God."
[13] Make them like tumbleweed, O my God, like chaff before the wind.
[14] As fire consumes a forest, as a flame sets the mountains ablaze,
[15] so pursue them with Your tempest, and terrify them with Your storm.
[16] Cover their faces with shame, that they may seek Your name, O LORD.
[17] May they be ever ashamed and terrified; may they perish in disgrace.
[18] May they know that You alone, whose name is the LORD, are Most High over all the earth.

84 For the choirmaster. According to Gittith. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. How lovely is Your dwelling place, O LORD of Hosts!
[2] My soul longs, even faints, for the courts of the LORD; my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.
[3] Even the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she places her young near Your altars, O LORD of Hosts, my King and my God.
[4] How blessed are those who dwell in Your house! They are ever praising You. Selah
[5] Blessed are those whose strength is in You, whose hearts are set on pilgrimage.
[6] As they pass through the Valley of Baca, they make it a place of springs; even the autumn rain covers it with pools.
[7] They go from strength to strength, until each appears before God in Zion.
[8] O LORD God of Hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah
[9] Take notice of our shield, O God, and look with favor on the face of Your anointed.
[10] For better is one day in Your courts than a thousand elsewhere. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked.
[11] For the LORD God is a sun and a shield; the LORD gives grace and glory; He withholds no good thing from those who walk with integrity.
[12] O LORD of Hosts, how blessed is the man who trusts in You!

85 For the choirmaster. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. You showed favor to Your land, O LORD; You restored Jacob from captivity.
[2] You forgave the iniquity of Your people; You covered all their sin. Selah
[3] You withheld all Your fury; You turned from Your burning anger.
[4] Restore us, O God of our salvation, and put away Your displeasure toward us.
[5] Will You be angry with us forever? Will You draw out Your anger to all generations?
[6] Will You not revive us again, that Your people may rejoice in You?
[7] Show us Your loving devotion, O LORD, and grant us Your salvation.
[8] I will listen to what God the LORD will say; for He will surely speak peace to His people and His saints; He will not let them return to folly.
[9] Surely His salvation is near to those who fear Him, that His glory may dwell in our land.
[10] Loving devotion and faithfulness have joined together; righteousness and peace have kissed.
[11] Faithfulness sprouts from the earth, and righteousness looks down from heaven.
[12] The LORD will indeed provide what is good, and our land will yield its increase.
[13] Righteousness will go before Him to prepare the way for His steps.

86 A prayer of David. Incline Your ear, O LORD, and answer me, for I am poor and needy.
[2] Preserve my soul, for I am godly. You are my God; save Your servant who trusts in You.
[3] Be merciful to me, O Lord, for I call to You all day long.
[4] Bring joy to Your servant, for to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
[5] For You, O Lord, are kind and forgiving, rich in loving devotion to all who call on You.
[6] Hear my prayer, O LORD, and attend to my plea for mercy.
[7] In the day of my distress I call on You, because You answer me.
[8] O Lord, there is none like You among the gods, nor any works like Yours.
[9] All the nations You have made will come and bow before You, O Lord, and they will glorify Your name.
[10] For You are great and perform wonders; You alone are God.
[11] Teach me Your way, O LORD, that I may walk in Your truth. Give me an undivided heart, that I may fear Your name.
[12] I will praise You, O Lord my God, with all my heart; I will glorify Your name forever.
[13] For great is Your loving devotion to me; You have delivered me from the depths of Sheol.
[14] The arrogant rise against me, O God; a band of ruthless men seeks my life, with no regard for You.
[15] But You, O Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in loving devotion and faithfulness.
[16] Turn to me and have mercy; grant Your strength to Your servant; save the son of Your maidservant.
[17] Show me a sign of Your goodness, that my enemies may see and be ashamed; for You, O LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

87 A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A song. He has founded His city on the holy mountains.
[2] The LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
[3] Glorious things are ascribed to you, O city of God. Selah
[4] "I will mention Rahab and Babylon among those who know Me— along with Philistia, Tyre, and Cush— when I say, 'This one was born in Zion.'"
[5] And it will be said of Zion: "This one and that one were born in her, and the Most High Himself will establish her."
[6] The LORD will record in the register of the peoples: "This one was born in Zion." Selah
[7] Singers and pipers will proclaim, "All my springs of joy are in You."

88 A song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. For the choirmaster. According to Mahalath Leannoth. A Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite. O LORD, the God of my salvation, day and night I cry out before You.
[2] May my prayer come before You; incline Your ear to my cry.
[3] For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draws near to Sheol.
[4] I am counted among those descending to the Pit. I am like a man without strength.
[5] I am forsaken among the dead, like the slain who lie in the grave, whom You remember no more, who are cut off from Your care.
[6] You have laid me in the lowest Pit, in the darkest of the depths.
[7] Your wrath weighs heavily upon me; all Your waves have submerged me. Selah
[8] You have removed my friends from me; You have made me repulsive to them; I am confined and cannot escape.
[9] My eyes grow dim with grief. I call to You daily, O LORD; I spread out my hands to You.
[10] Do You work wonders for the dead? Do departed spirits rise up to praise You? Selah
[11] Can Your loving devotion be proclaimed in the grave, Your faithfulness in Abaddon?
[12] Will Your wonders be known in the darkness, or Your righteousness in the land of oblivion?
[13] But to You, O LORD, I cry for help; in the morning my prayer comes before You.
[14] Why, O LORD, do You reject me? Why do You hide Your face from me?
[15] From my youth I was afflicted and near death. I have borne Your terrors; I am in despair.
[16] Your wrath has swept over me; Your terrors have destroyed me.

17 All day long they engulf me like water; they enclose me on every side.
18 You have removed my beloved and my friend; darkness is my closest companion.

89 A Maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite. I will sing of the loving devotion of the LORD forever; with my mouth I will proclaim Your faithfulness to all generations.
2 For I have said, "Loving devotion is built up forever; in the heavens You establish Your faithfulness."
3 You said, "I have made a covenant with My chosen one, I have sworn to David My servant:"
4 "'I will establish your offspring forever and build up your throne for all generations.'" Selah
5 The heavens praise Your wonders, O LORD— Your faithfulness as well— in the assembly of the holy ones.
6 For who in the skies can compare with the LORD? Who among the heavenly beings is like the LORD?
7 In the council of the holy ones, God is greatly feared, and awesome above all who surround Him.
8 O LORD God of Hosts, who is like You? O mighty LORD, Your faithfulness surrounds You.
9 You rule the raging sea; when its waves mount up, You still them.
10 You crushed Rahab like a carcass; You scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.
11 The heavens are Yours, and also the earth. The earth and its fullness You founded.
12 North and south You created; Tabor and Hermon shout for joy at Your name.
13 Mighty is Your arm; strong is Your hand. Your right hand is exalted.
14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne; loving devotion and faithfulness go before You.
15 Blessed are those who know the joyful sound, who walk, O LORD, in the light of Your presence.
16 They rejoice in Your name all day long, and in Your righteousness they exult.
17 For You are the glory of their strength, and by Your favor our horn is exalted.
18 Surely our shield belongs to the LORD, and our king to the Holy One of Israel.
19 You once spoke in a vision; to Your godly ones You said, "I have bestowed help on a warrior; I have exalted one chosen from the people."
20 I have found My servant David; with My sacred oil I have anointed him.
21 My hand will sustain him; surely My arm will strengthen him.
22 No enemy will exact tribute; no wicked man will oppress him.
23 I will crush his foes before him and strike down those who hate him.
24 My faithfulness and loving devotion will be with him, and through My name his horn will be exalted.
25 I will set his hand over the sea, and his right hand upon the rivers.
26 He will call to Me, 'You are my Father, my God, the Rock of my salvation.'
27 I will indeed appoint him as My firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth.
28 I will forever preserve My loving devotion for him, and My covenant with him will stand fast.
29 I will establish his line forever, his throne as long as the heavens endure.
30 If his sons forsake My law and do not walk in My judgments,
31 if they violate My statutes and fail to keep My commandments,
32 I will attend to their transgression with the rod, and to their iniquity with stripes.
33 But I will not withdraw My loving devotion from him, nor ever betray My faithfulness.
34 I will not violate My covenant or alter the utterance of My lips.
35 Once and for all I have sworn by My holiness— I will not lie to David—
36 his offspring shall endure forever, and his throne before Me like the sun,
37 "like the moon, established forever, a faithful witness in the sky." Selah
38 Now, however, You have spurned and rejected him; You are enraged by Your anointed one.
39 You have renounced the covenant with Your servant and sullied his crown in the dust.
40 You have broken down all his walls; You have reduced his strongholds to rubble.
41 All who pass by plunder him; he has become a reproach to his neighbors.
42 You have exalted the right hand of his foes; You have made all his enemies rejoice.
43 You have bent the edge of his sword and have not sustained him in battle.
44 You have ended his splendor and cast his throne to the ground.
45 You have cut short the days of his youth; You have covered him with shame. Selah
46 How long, O LORD? Will You hide Yourself forever? Will Your wrath keep burning like fire?
47 Remember the briefness of my lifespan! For what futility You have created all men!
48 What man can live and never see death? Can he deliver his soul from the power of Sheol? Selah
49 Where, O Lord, is Your loving devotion of old, which You faithfully swore to David?
50 Remember, O Lord, the reproach of Your servants, which I bear in my heart from so many people—
51 how Your enemies have taunted, O LORD, and have mocked every step of Your anointed one!
52 Blessed be the LORD forever! Amen and amen.

90 A prayer of Moses the man of God. Lord, You have been our dwelling place through all generations.
2 Before the mountains were born or You brought forth the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting You are God.
3 You return man to dust, saying, "Return, O sons of mortals."
4 For in Your sight a thousand years are but a day that passes, or a watch of the night.
5 You whisk them away in their sleep; they are like the new grass of the morning—
6 in the morning it springs up new, but by evening it fades and withers.
7 For we are consumed by Your anger and terrified by Your wrath.
8 You have set our iniquities before You, our secret sins in the light of Your presence.
9 For all our days decline in Your fury; we finish our years with a sigh.
10 The length of our days is seventy years— or eighty if we are strong— yet their pride is but labor and sorrow, for they quickly pass, and we fly away.
11 Who knows the power of Your anger? Your wrath matches the fear You are due.
12 So teach us to number our days, that we may present a heart of wisdom.
13 Return, O LORD! How long will it be? Have compassion on Your servants.
14 Satisfy us in the morning with Your loving devotion, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.
15 Make us glad for as many days as You have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen evil.
16 May Your work be shown to Your servants, and Your splendor to their children.
17 May the favor of the Lord our God rest upon us; establish for us the work of our hands— yes, establish the work of our hands!

91 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.
2 I will say to the LORD, "You are my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."
3 Surely He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly plague.
4 He will cover you with His feathers; under His wings you will find refuge; His faithfulness is a shield and rampart.
5 You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day,
6 nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the calamity that destroys at noon.
7 Though a thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand, no harm will come near you.
8 You will only see it with your eyes and witness the punishment of the wicked.
9 Because you have made the LORD your dwelling— my refuge, the Most High—
10 no evil will befall you, no plague will approach your tent.
11 For He will command His angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.
12 They will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.
13 You will tread on the lion and cobra; you will trample the young lion and serpent.
14 "Because he loves Me, I will deliver him; because he knows My name, I will protect him."
15 When he calls out to Me, I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble. I will deliver him and honor him.
16 "With long life I will satisfy him and show him My salvation."

92 A Psalm. A song for the Sabbath day. It is good to praise the LORD, and to sing praises to Your name, O Most High,
2 to proclaim Your loving devotion in the morning and Your faithfulness at night
3 with the ten-stringed harp and the melody of the lyre.
4 For You, O LORD, have made me glad by Your deeds; I sing for joy at the works of Your hands.
